

University of Cambridge A'Level Arts

(R/010/3/0337)(04/20)(A11274) (Penang Campus)

Are you wondering what to do after completing your SPM? You can enrol to study the Cambridge Assessment (A-Level) International Examination at ATC College, and gain entry into the world's best universities worldwide, whether locally or overseas, in countries such as the UK, USA, Canada, New Zealand, and Australia. As the most recognised pre-tertiary qualification provided by the prestigious University of Cambridge equips you for the future, opens doors for you, to more degrees and more profession than many other qualifications.

Much like the SPM that you are already familiar with, A-Level is a 100% exam-based pre-university programme. It is the UK's version of STPM, and it is also known as the GCE Advanced Level. The A-Level programme is an entry requirement for a degree in the university, preparing you for it through the comprehensive study of your selected subjects. At ATC College A-Levels programme, you will experience a rich and in-depth academic programme in a well-structured format, facilitated by top-notch lecturers.
