American Degree Transfer Program (ADTP)

KPT/JPS(R/010/3/0233)(MQA/FA4447)03/24

The American Degree Transfer Program (ADTP) is a flexible credit transfer program that gives students a seamless transition to universities across the United States.

Students are given the opportunity to explore a wide range of courses from various fields, ranging from physical sciences, life sciences to art, history, literature, philosophy, and even religious studies.

Students will complete 24-65 credit hours in MCKL, and the remainder of their credit hours in a U.S. university of their choice before launching into their career paths. Availability of Optional Practical Training (OPT) in the education system provides opportunities for graduates to gain work experience in the U.S. and widen their network in their respective fields.

INTAKE

January, May & August

1-2

Years Programme

- Affordable Cost
 Enable students to obtain quality education in the U.S. at a reasonable cost. Course advisors will inform students of available scholarships and financial aid offered by U.S. colleges and universities for international students to help ease expenses.
- Strong Practical Exposure
 Curricular Practical Training (CPT) and Optional Practical Training (OPT) grant invaluable opportunities for students to gain relevant work experience in the U.S. during their studies and post-graduation.
- Successful Admission
 With a curriculum benchmarked against those of U.S. universities, ADTP at MCKL provides a smooth pathway for students to transition to their U.S. universities of choice. Students will also receive personalized advice on selecting optimal universities for their further education, along with guidance throughout the application process.
- Personalized Community
 Concentrated class sizes allow students to engage in meaningful discourse with their lecturers and classmates. ADTP at MCKL also prides itself on its strong and unified student community, which is supported by the student-run ADTP Union.
- Dynamic Alumni Network
 A robust alumni network, both locally and abroad, provides academic, social and career support for current students.
- Vigorous Preparation for U.S. Studies
 Blended learning approaches and rigorous classroom management strategies contribute to MCKL's successful track record of equipping students for the critical-thinking level required within U.S. education. This enables students to gain admission into top universities, such as Purdue University, University of Wisconsin and many more.
- Exclusive Scholarships
 Access to exclusive scholarships between MCKL's ADTP and renowned partner U.S. universities.
